MESSAGE

It is a joy for me to congratulate Home Guards, Civil Defence & State Disaster Response Force Organization on the glorious occasion of its Raising Day on the 6th of December.

As the Organisation celebrates this significant occasion, I salute the strong and brave personnel for their selfless services to the people. The Organisation has been in the forefront during numerous calamities and provided rescue and relief to the people in times of need. They are also fundamental in our internal security. I express heartfelt gratitude to the personnel for the altruistic contributions during the COVID-19 pandemic.

I believe the Organization with experience will grow further and deliver even more than the expectations of the people.

On this auspicious occasion, I wish all the personnel of the Nagaland Home Guards, Civil Defence & State Disaster Response Force a joyous celebration.
